

Let's do something big.

The Access Success Podcast

The Access Success Podcast is a business podcast produced by AccessU, a division of Access Advertising and Public Relations, and hosted by Rachel Schneider. The show highlights important topics focused on education — in every form it takes. New episodes are released weekly on Spotify, Apple Podcasts, Google Podcasts, and more.

Our Guests

We interview professionals working in education, social media, workforce development, advertising, and business consulting who share insights on the trends they're seeing in their field of expertise and how others can apply that knowledge to improve their own marketing and public relations strategies. Utilizing our guests and our team of creatives and PR specialists, our content ranges from the basics of crisis communication to trademark law and diversity, equity, and inclusion. Episodes are recorded in person at our state-of-the-art studio in Roanoke, Virginia, or via Zoom, depending on guest availability.

Our Audience

Our listeners are made up of small business owners, community organizations and non-profits, as well as peers in advertising and marketing staying up to date on what the world of education needs to hear.
